

1 to day supervision and control. All reports and other records that are generated as part of the 2 task force are created and stored on the DEA's computer system. Task force records are never 3 created or stored on an officer's home agency computer system, and are not provided to the 4 officer's home agency. Task force records are DEA records.

5 4. DEA investigations each have an assigned "case agent" who is responsible for 6 writing the report for that case. Agents other than the case agent generally do not write reports.

7 5. I recall a DEA investigation involving Mr. Worthington in January 2007. I was 8 not the case agent for that investigation.

9 6. I do not recall generating any records relating to the January 2007 investigation
 10 of Mr. Worthington. However, if I did, they would be in the possession of the DEA. I did not 11 generate any WSP records relating to the January 2007 investigation of Mr. Worthington.

12 EXECUTED this 3rd day of November, 2008, at Olympia, Washington.
